Seeking Jesus Through Sacraments, Study and Service to Others

Letter From School Board

Friends of St. Joseph School,

Welcome to the St. Joseph School's Annual Report for School Year 2013/ 2014. My name is Steve Donnelly and I have had the opportunity to serve as the Chair of our School Board for the current academic school year. My wife Tricia and I are members here at St. Joseph Catholic Church along with our three children, Ethan, Anna, and Finnigan who are all students at St. Joseph Catholic School.

In this special year of Parish Stewardship Renewal, Tricia and I reflect on stewardship and on finding St. Joseph parish almost ten years ago as our family was just getting started. What is stewardship? If you look in your dictionary, you will find the following definition: to manage, to care for, to protect, to have a duty to or to have an obligation to something. Stewardship to me is the ability to identify the opportunities God gives to each of us, and then take action.

Tricia and I started at St. Joseph Catholic School as most parents: by dropping off the kids in the morning and picking them up in the afternoon. First one student, next two, and then all three. As time passed, we knew there was more. We realized we had the opportunity to be involved with the development of the Catholic identity of not only our own kids while at St. Joseph School but also many of the other 350 students as well. With each passing year our involvement has grown at St. Joseph Catholic School and with that growth so too the rewards from embracing this stewardship.

There is nothing like seeing the Catholic identity and prayer life of a child develop through these grade school years. To know you have been a part of that process by being a parent volunteer, a coach, a parish volunteer, a board member, a steward donor, or as a teacher is truly a blessing beyond words. These opportunities from God to share our blessings of our time, talents, and treasures are available to us all today, tomorrow, the rest of this school year, and each, and every school year to come. It is up to each of us to see the opportunities and take action.

Thank you all for your stewardship of our school and God bless us all in this time of renewal.

Sincerely,

Steve Donnelly
